Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I recently decided to learn to cook. As I sit at the feet of various YouTube cooking masters, I notice how much of cooking is adding ingredients that don't provide any more nourishment, like herbs and other seasonings. But man! They make all the difference because they make the meal delightful to eat and share.

Jesus calls his disciples "salt of the world." No one eats just salt. So, Christians are not meant to replace or do away with the world. They are meant to be agents of preservation and glorification. Notice how often these days the Church seeks to preserve what is threatened: the goodness of marital and family love, the desires of young people for greatness, the value of honest work, healthy economics, and altruistic political engagement, the dignity of the poor and vulnerable. Over and over, we say to a world who wants to throw things out, "It's worth saving! We'll preserve it! We'll show you it's wonderful." If we can't engage the world like that, Jesus says we are the ones who get thrown out, because salt alone is worthless.

Jesus only asks us to do for others what he does for us. He is the "salt" of everything in our lives. Is there something in your life starting to rot a bit? Something tasting bland and boring? Let Jesus salt it and see if you like it better.

— Father John Muir

United in Ministry

...the essential service of hope

As a Catholic community, we embrace the call to make God present in our everyday lives. For many of us, our commitment to the United in Ministry Appeal allows us to be part of that active witness of our faith. Through the UIM Appeal, we serve our community: calling forth vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life, forming youth and young adults, promoting marriage and family life, reaching out to persons in need.

Each year, we ask you to support the United in Ministry Appeal even with the knowledge that such a gift may be a true sacrifice, especially in these challenging times. However, just as no one is so rich that he cannot receive from another, there is no one so poor that he cannot offer to assist another. Every gift, if given from the heart, makes a difference.

This weekend is Pledge Weekend. The Love of Christ urges us on, no matter what challenges come our way. Your generosity to UIM helps the Church to serve so many in our communities. The United in Ministry appeal brings hope to the hopeless, strengthens the faith of the discouraged and provides charity to those most in need.

Thank you and God bless you!

Como comunidad Católica, aceptamos el llamado de hacer a Dios presente en nuestra vida cotidiana. Para muchos de nosotros, nuestro compromiso con la campaña United in Ministry nos permite ser parte de ese testimonio activo de nuestra fe. A través de la campaña United in Ministry, servimos a nuestra comunidad: convocando vocaciones al sacerdocio y a la vida consagrada, formando a jóvenes y adultos, promoviendo el matrimonio y la vida familiar, y llegando a las personas necesitadas.

Cada año, le pedimos que apoye la campaña United in Ministry incluso sabiendo que tal regalo puede ser un verdadero sacrificio, especialmente en estos tiempos tan difíciles. Sin embargo, así como nadie es tan rico que no pueda recibir de otro, no hay nadie tan pobre que no pueda ofrecerse para ayudar a otro. Cada regalo, si se da de corazón, marca la diferencia.

Este fin de semana es el fin de semana de las promesas. El Amor de Cristo nos impulsa a seguir adelante, sin importar los desafíos que se nos presenten. Su generosidad con United in Ministry ayuda a la Iglesia a servir a muchas personas en nuestras comunidades. United in Ministry trae esperanza a los desesperados, fortalece la fe de los desanimados y brinda caridad a los más necesitados.

¡Gracias y que Dios le bendiga!
